Call for Papers

About the Journal

The Journal of Technical and Vocational Education and Training (TVET) is a peer-reviewed journal published annually by the Council for Technical Education and Vocational Training (CTEVT). It provides a platform for sharing original research conducted in the field of TVET. It welcomes submissions involving a critical discussion on the local, national, regional and global practices in TVET. It includes articles based on empirical research and analysis. It also embraces the review papers and book reviews for the purpose of flourishing TVET knowledge and practices. It is published in both print (ISSN: 2773-8248) and online (eISSN: 3021-9221) versions. It is an open access journal and is also indexed in NepJOL. The journal invites submissions related to TVET from all the interested authors for its forthcoming issue (Vol. 18, No. 1), which is going to be published on February 24, 2024.

Submission Guidelines

Manuscripts should have a length between 4,000 and 8,000 words, encompassing the abstract and all references. All submissions should be prepared in English and include an abstract of no more than 250 words. Citation and referencing should follow the APA (7th edition) style. The submission must be original work, not previously published, and not under consideration for publication elsewhere. The authors are also requested to fill out the Author Declaration Form, sign it and send a scanned copy of it along with the manuscript at research@ctevt.org.np.

Peer-review Process

All papers submitted to the journal will undergo a double-blind peer review process. Each paper will be evaluated based on its originality, quality of research, contribution to the field, and alignment with the aims and scope of the journal.

Article Processing Charges

The journal requires no article processing charges (APC) or other publication fees from the author. The publication costs for the journal are covered by CTEVT.
